 10 am - 12 pm: lecture and art lesson
 12 - 12:30 pm: lunch
 12:30 - 2 pm: 2- and 3-dimensional art
 2 pm: pick up

Day 1 (4 August):

Whales and Dolphins are awesome!
 After learning about their general natural history of cetaceans (whales and dolphins) we will draw and paint them.

Day 2, 3, & 4* (5-7 August):

Whales and Dolphins need our help!

What does "anthropogenic" mean?
 Learn about the modern day impacts on cetaceans, and help through 2- and 3-dimensional and environmental art.

*On Day 4 (7 August) we will walk to a beach clean-up. A release is required on the Student Information form (at right).

Day 5 (8 August):

Helping the Origami Whales Project a large scale public Environmental Art project to raise awareness about commercial whaling. We will learn to make origami whales and dolphins and then Origami Whale art as a fund-raising project.
